

An aerial photograph of a residential area in Sicily, featuring Via Capo d'Orso. The map is annotated with yellow arrows indicating traffic flow and red circular signs with white diagonal lines indicating one-way traffic. A red line with a dot points from the text box to a specific location on the road. The area includes a marina with many boats on the right, a roundabout at the bottom, and various buildings and parking lots.

An aerial photograph of a residential neighborhood with numerous houses and some green spaces. A red rectangular box is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing white text. A red line with a circular dot at its base extends from the bottom of the box to a road. Yellow arrows are drawn on the roads to indicate traffic flow: one points left at the top, another points right at the top right, and several others point in various directions along the main road and side streets. Red circular icons with white horizontal lines are placed at several intersections and along the roads.
